

WESDOME GOLD MINES LTD.
CHARTER OF THE COMPENSATION AND HUMAN RESOURCES COMMITTEE

PURPOSE

The Board of Directors of Wesdome Gold Mines Ltd. (the “Company”) has established a Compensation and Human Resources Committee (the “Committee”) in furtherance of its commitment to fair and effective compensation practices. The primary function of the Committee is to assist the board of directors of the Company (the “Board”) in fulfilling oversight responsibilities.

ROLE

The Committee’s primary function is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, including:

- a. Establishing key compensation policies.
- b. Conducting a performance evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer (the “CEO”) and determining compensation for the CEO and other senior executives of the Company.
- c. Monitoring talent management, leadership and human capital development.
- d. Creation of succession plans, including the appointment, training and evaluation of senior executives, with the assistance of the Governance and Nominating Committee.

COMPOSITION AND MEMBERSHIP

- e. The independent directors of the Board will annually appoint the members of the Committee. The members will be appointed to hold office until the next annual general meeting of shareholders of the Company or until their successors are appointed.
- f. The Committee will consist of at least three directors, all of whom shall be independent non-executive directors, free from any relationship that, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of his or her independent judgment as a member of the Compensation Committee.
- g. All members will have a working familiarity with compensation and human resources matters.
- h. The Board will appoint one of the members to act as the Chair of the Committee (the “Chair”).

MEETINGS AND PROCESS

The Committee shall meet at least two times annually, or more frequently as circumstances require. Meetings of the Committee will be held at such times and places as the Chair may determine, and may be held in person, by telephone, and/or by video conference.

A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. No business may be transacted by the Committee except at a meeting of its Members at which a quorum of the Committee is present, or by a unanimous written consent. Members shall be provided with a minimum of 48 hours’ notice of meetings. The notice period may be waived by a quorum of the Committee.

The Committee Chair, if present, will act as the chair of meetings of the Committee and shall establish the agenda of the meeting and, where possible, ensure that materials are circulated sufficiently in advance to provide adequate time for review prior to the meeting. The Committee Chair will appoint a Recording Secretary at each meeting. The Secretary will keep minutes of each meeting, which will be distributed in advance of subsequent meetings for Committee approval. At each meeting of the Committee, there shall be an in camera session of only the independent members if applicable.

The Committee may delegate work to one or more of its members, and such members must report to the Committee at its next scheduled meeting or as otherwise mandated. In order to properly carry out its responsibilities, the Committee may retain outside consultants upon the approval of the Board Chair.

The Committee shall have access to officers and employees of the Company, its auditors, legal counsel and to such information respecting the Company as it considers necessary or advisable in order to perform its duties and responsibilities.

The Committee shall report its discussions to the Board at the next Board meeting.
